

Give the Gift of Truth & Tradition

THE EPOCH TIMES

TRUTH and TRADITION

You know that the truth doesn't just make you more informed—it can also bring you a sense of revitalized hope. But what about your friends and family who are still missing out?

This holiday season, our Epoch Times gift subscription can help you share this hope with your loved ones. Thousands of our most loyal subscribers—and counting—have already done so.

Through our journalism, you can prove to them that our nation's values remain strong. You can show them that there is a growing community that's willing to fight for these values. What else can bring more hope nowadays?

I have decided to give subscriptions to The Epoch Times as Christmas gifts to all adults on my list—the gift of information, the gift of knowledge, the gift of truth, [and] the gift of trust. - PAULA LABROT, CA
